

Scripture (the Bible) tells us how we can be assured of paradise.

Can good works earn us a place in heaven?

A true Muslim is submitted to Allah. That means Allah controls all he thinks, acts, speaks. If a Muslim does something Allah would not do (such as lie, worry, covet), he is not fully surrendered to Allah. That is sin. Can good works make up for sin?

The Bible says, "For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. . . . for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Romans 3: 20, 23).

God is just and will not let sin go unpunished—regardless of how well the Five Pillars are kept or how many good deeds are done. Even one sin is enough to merit hell fire (James 2: 10). Since sin prevents our entrance to heaven, and God, being just, will not arbitrarily forgive sin, who will help us?

Can Muhammad intercede for us?

While some hadiths suggest that Muhammad may intercede for them, Muslims accept the Qur'an as their ultimate authority. It teaches that a mere man—even Muhammad—cannot mediate on behalf of sinful men (Surah 2: 48; 6:51; 35:18).

Can Isa intercede for us?

A mediator to the holy God must be perfect himself. He must be no ordinary person. Thankfully, God sent the holy Jesus to intercede for sinful man: "For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,  who gave himself as a ransom for all" (1 Timothy 2:5-6a).

Many people witnessed Jesus Christ as a prophet, teacher, and miracle worker. They told "how God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him. We are witnesses of all the things He did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They also put Him to death by hanging Him on a cross. God raised Him up on the third day and granted that He become visible, not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen beforehand by God, that is, to us who ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead. And He ordered us to preach to the people, and solemnly to testify that this is the One who has been appointed by God as Judge of the living and the dead. Of Him all the prophets bear witness that through His name everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins" (Acts 10: 38-43).

All true prophets witness that Jesus is the only way sinners can be forgiven. Without Jesus as your Savior from sin, you will face Him as Judge with your sins exposed. Jesus says, "Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am He, you will die in your sins" (John 8: 24).

You must turn from your sin and realize that you cannot earn paradise through good deeds. Believe that Jesus is the Savior sent from God to save you from the penalty and power of sin. If you refuse to follow Him, you must be separated from the holy God in hell.

Those who trust in Jesus—not merely knowing about Him but relying on Him for salvation, submitting to Him as Master, and loving Him as the greatest treasure—will be saved from sin and hell.

Jesus assures those who follow Him of heaven! "Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes [on Me] has eternal life" (John 6: 47).

THE PATH OF THE PROPHETS 10/2 Musli

Dear Kshrm,

Hi, my name is Scott and I'm a volunteer with 4stepstogod.mobi web site. You indicated on the form that you prayed to receive Christ. I'm excited that you made the decision to accept Christ as your Savior. This is the most important decision you will ever make. Welcome to the family of God!

When you asked Christ to be your savior, several things happened.

- Christ came into your life (Revelation 3: 20)
- You became a child of God (John 1: 12)
- Your sins were forgiven (Col 1: 14)
- You now have the gift of eternal life (1 John 5: 11)

You can read the Bible in multiple languages, including Arabic, at www.biblegateway.com. There are many answers to common questions at www.JesusFactOrFiction.com

What do you think about all of this?

Have you noticed anything different since you invited Jesus into your life?

Do you have any questions about what you did or what really happened?

The Bible says, "If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has passed away, the new has come." (2 Corinthians 5: 17) I would like to help you grow in your new Christian faith. There are some great resources at <http://www.looktojesus.com> which can help you be sure you are a Christian, give you some basics about the Christian life, and teach you how to pray and learn from the Bible. You will also discover about being filled with the Holy Spirit.

This is all the fulfillment of the promise which God made to Abraham that all the people of the world could be blessed through one of his descendants. The promised blessing includes 1) forgiveness of sins (Romans 4: 7) , 2) eternal life (Titus 2:1), and 3) the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:17). Adam sinned, resulting in death and broken relationships with God. (Romans 5:12). At the time of Noah, God made clear that sin includes all evil intentions, and deserves death (Genesis 6:5). And God gave the law to Moses, to show us our sin and our need for God's forgiveness (Romans 5:20, and Romans 3:20). The law is a mirror. As we try to obey it, we find we fail. Thus, we see how evil we really are. In this way, we see our need for the blessing of forgiveness and eternal life through the promised descendent of Abraham. Jesus Christ is that promised descendant of Abraham, through whom we can know God and be forgiven. (Galatians 3:16) Jesus Christ is uniquely God and uniquely man (Luke 1:34). Taking our punishment of death upon Himself, Christ is able to forgive our sins (Romans 5:8). Coming back to life, Christ is able to give life (1 Corinthians 15:20-22) But it is not enough just to know the path of the prophets. WE MUST EACH turn from our sin, and trust God to give us the Holy Spirit. (Acts 3:19), (Ephesians 2:8-9) Prayer allows us to express our personal repentance and trust in God for the Holy Spirit, the forgiveness of sins, and for eternal life through Jesus Christ.

Please think about this, and let me know what questions you have. God has reached all the way to Saudi Arabia to touch you personally with the message of the Gospel, of forgiveness for sins. Please e-mail me today or anytime with questions -- or let me know how I can pray for you.

God bless,

Scott

Hello, I am _____ and I will be your internet mentor for this website.

I am so glad to know that you have invited Jesus Christ into your life to be your Lord and Saviour! I myself have done that many years ago. I knew that I was a sinner, and that Jesus came to earth to forgive sinners. I asked Him to come into my life, and He forgave me, cleansed me, and made me a new person. He has been my guide, my friend, my comforter, my saviour, my provider, my healer. I know that you will find Jesus to be completely faithful to His wonderful promises, too.

Whatever your spiritual needs are, I can assure you that they will be met in Jesus Christ alone. He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life (John 14:6). Through Jesus you have eternal life if you have received Him by faith: "God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. Whoever has the Son has that life" (1 John 5:11-13).

Now that you have started a new life with Christ, you will want to keep on growing spiritually. Please visit: <http://www.looktojesus.com>. This website has some good interactive lessons such as how to be sure that you have eternal life, how to experience God's love and forgiveness, how to be controlled and empowered by the Holy Spirit, and how to grow spiritually. I highly recommend that you start with the first study and go through them all in order.

Do you have a Bible? Make sure you read and pray daily. I can show you how to read the Bible and pray to Jesus if you need any help. Meet often with other Christians in a church or fellowship group for worship and prayers. Tell others about your new faith in Christ.

I will be happy to continue guiding you in your spiritual growth. Kindly write back and tell me more about yourself and your spiritual journey. Let me know if you have any questions about the Bible or how to follow Jesus. I will be praying for you too.

Looking forward to your next mail.
